

COURSE TITLE: English IV
COURSE LENGTH: 1 year
COURSE CREDIT: 1 credit

COURSE TYPE: required
GRADE LEVEL: 12
PREREQUISITE: n/a

COURSE GOALS:

1. Students will assess mythological stories from Greek, Roman, and Germanic traditions.
 2. Students will outline the progress of the English language from its Germanic/Norse origins through modern day.
 3. Students will evaluate and compare British literary styles.
 4. Students will improve their literary analysis skills, becoming adept at finding and applying critical lenses.
 5. Students will analyze a novel of their choice and present their analysis of the literature.
-

COURSE CONTENT:

1. Greek, Roman, and Germanic myth
2. British Renaissance
3. Elizabethan England
4. Victorian England
5. Irish literature, from myth to modern day
6. Modern British Literature